

Cooper River Bridge Run, Charleston, USA
Saturday 27 March 2010
Report by Kay Farrow of Beverley Athletic Club

Beverley AC member David Robinson took part in one of the world's largest 10k races last Saturday, in Charleston, USA.

More than 33,000 runners completed the Cooper River Bridge Run and David's time of 48 minutes 10 placed him in the top 2000 overall and 12th out of 598 in his age category.

As its name suggests the race route takes runners over the Cooper River Bridge from Mount Pleasant to Charleston. With 2 miles of flat road at the start, followed by a mile-long climb with a 5% gradient over the bridge and a final flat 2 miles to the finish.
